

I suspect this point has been made over and over here, but feel compelled to do so again. Jefferson is said to have stated that there can be no democracy without a free press. I agree and do not feel that further consolidation of media is in the interests of the people of this country.